KERALA 2025

INAUGURAL SESSION

Main Hall, The Zuri

TiEcon Kerala 2025 commenced on an inspiring note with its Inaugural Function held on 21st November at The Zuri, Kumarakom, bringing together founders, industry leaders and innovators for a powerful start to the two-day experience. The ceremony opened with Welcome Remarks from Dr. Geemon Korah, Chair of TiEcon Kerala 2025 and Vice President of TiE Kerala, followed by the Presidential Address by Mr. Vivek Krishna Govind, President of TiE Kerala. The traditional Lamp Lighting Ceremony symbolised the illumination of ideas and the beginning of meaningful collaborations. The Chief Guest, Mr. C.K. Ranganathan, Founder Chairman & Managing Director of CavinKare Pvt. Ltd., delivered an inspiring Inaugural Address, after which the Guest of Honour, Mr. C. Balagopal, Chairman of KSIDC, shared valuable insights into Kerala's evolving opportunities and the role of a supportive ecosystem in shaping future-ready enterprises. The Inaugural Function set a strong foundation for the sessions that followed, energising the community, sparking curiosity and reinforcing TiE's mission to empower entrepreneurs at every stage of their journey.

FRIDAY, 21st November 2025

The much-anticipated Final Pitching Round of the 8th Edition of Capital Café – Startup Pitch Fest was held during TiEcon Kerala 2025, bringing the State’s most promising early-stage ventures onto a high-visibility platform before leading investors, mentors and industry leaders. Building on the momentum of the Second Round Pitching held at KSUM, the finalists delivered compelling presentations that reflected Kerala’s growing talent, innovation depth and entrepreneurial ambition.

The final round featured six shortlisted startups: Parinaama.ai, GI CERI LAB (OPC) Private Limited, Cashcrow, Aventose Energy, FemiCura HealthTech Private Limited, and Eight Times Eight. Each team showcased clear problem statements, strong technological foundations and market-ready solutions, reinforcing the quality and competitiveness of this year’s cohort.

Among the standout performers were FemiCura HealthTech Private Limited, recognised for its impactful approach to women’s health innovation, and Eight Times Eight, applauded for its sharp value proposition and scalable business model. Their pitches demonstrated clarity, execution discipline and a strong readiness for investor engagement, earning appreciation from the judging panel and attendees alike.

The Capital Café Final Pitching not only spotlighted pioneering ideas but also strengthened investor–startup connections, furthering TiE Kerala’s commitment to nurturing entrepreneurship and unlocking new avenues of growth for Kerala’s startup ecosystem. The session concluded with renewed optimism, as founders, investors and mentors came together to celebrate the spirit of innovation that drives the Capital Café initiative year after year.

Pitch Bay emerged as one of the most electrifying segments of TiEcon Kerala 2025, creating a high-energy arena where Kerala's most promising early-stage startups pitched directly to a powerhouse panel of investors ready to make on-the-spot funding commitments. The panel featured industry leaders Ajit Moopan (Chairman & CEO, MN Holdings), Hari Krishnan Nair (President, Western India Cashew Co.), Nazneen Jehangir (ED & CEO, NEST Group), Aju Jacob (VP Designate, TiE Kerala & MD, Synthite Industries Ltd.), along with Dr. Geemon Korah (Executive Director & CEO, Mane Kancor Ingredients Ltd.), and was expertly anchored by Vinodini Sukumar (Chair, TYE & TiE University & MD, TeamOne Advertising). Designed to spotlight Kerala-based innovation, Pitch Bay gave the top startups a unique platform to secure capital, visibility and strategic support, resulting in three startups receiving immediate investment commitments, while several others walked away with valuable mentorship offers, partnership interests and follow-up discussion, making Pitch Bay a true catalyst for Kerala's next generation of game-changing ventures.
